Unitarian Universalist Legislative Ministry Florida

Dr. Steven Segner

The Steering Committee of the Unitarian Universalist Legislative Ministry of Florida (UULMF) today announced the appointment of Dr. Steven P. Segner to the position of Steering Committee Chair. Segner who resides in South Daytona, FL, will serve a one-year term from July 1, 2009, through June 30, 2010.

Dr. Segner replaces the Reverend Dr. Meredith Garmon, Ph.D., who served as Chair from UULMF's inception in 2006 until he announced his resignation this June. Garmon will remain active with UULMF as a Steering Committee member.

As Chair, Dr. Segner will have overall responsibility for UULMF operations including Steering Committee recruiting and membership, personnel performance reviews and evaluations, fundraising, budget estimating and planning, public relations, and marketing. Dr. Segner will also oversee development and execution of UULMF's ongoing programs including its signature Legislative Day held each spring in Tallahassee.

The organization's paid part time Coordinator reports to Dr. Segner. Raised in suburban Chicago, IL, Dr. Segner earned his Bachelor's degree from Southern Illinois University, Carbondale. He went on to be graduated with a Master's degree from the University of Georgia. He received his Doctorate from North Carolina State University.
