

LIFE LONG LEARNING – Program Announcement

Questions of Value

Facilitated by: Carla and Jim Christianson

Wednesdays, April 28, May 6, May12 and May26, 2010

7:30-9:00 PM

Unitarian-Universalist Society, 56 N. Halifax Dr., Ormond Beach, FL 32176

A Question of Value is one of The Great Courses from Teaching Company

Taught by: Professor Patrick Grim, State University of New York at Stony Brook

We will watch a 35 minute DVD followed by discussion

April 28 – “Facts and Values”

May 6 - “Lives to Envy, Lives to Admire.”

May 12 and May 26 to be determined

This program is part of the ongoing Unitarian-Universalist Society Explorations

These four sessions will explore some thought provoking question such as: What is it that gives something genuine value? What is worth striving for and what makes life worth living?

Are there values that transcend cultural differences? Is ethics possible without religion?

To register for the program by email: uuexplorations@gmail.com

To register by phone and for more information: Dan Kennedy__386-672-2556.